
THE TRUSTEES OF THE GREAT SOMERFORD FREE GARDENS PRIVACY NOTICE 2021

When you contact us

The information you provide (personal information such as name, address, email address, phone number, organisation) will be processed and stored to enable us to contact you and respond to your correspondence, provide information and/or access our facilities and services. Your personal information will be not shared or provided to any other third party.

The Trustees' Right to Process Information

General Data Protection Regulations Article 6 (1) (a) (b) and (e) state

- Processing is with consent of the data subject, or
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation, or
- Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller

Information Security

The Trustees of the Great Somerford Free Gardens have a duty to ensure the security of personal data. We make sure that your information is protected from unauthorised access, loss, manipulation, falsification, destruction or unauthorised disclosure. This is done through appropriate technical measures and restricting access to sitting Trustees only. Trustees only retain personal data whilst they are in office.

We will only keep your data for the purpose it was collected for and only for as long as is necessary. After which it will be deleted. (You may request the deletion of your data held by the Trustees, at any time).

Children

We will not process any data relating to a child (under 13) without the express consent of the parent or guardian of the child concerned.

Access to Information

You have the right to request access to the information we have on you. You can do this by contacting the Trustees.

Information Correction

If you believe that the information we have about you is incorrect, you may contact us so that we can update it and keep your data accurate. Please contact the Trustees to request this.

Information Deletion

If you wish the Trustees to delete the information about you, please contact them.

Right to Object

If you believe that your data is not being processed for the purpose it has been collected for, you may object - please contact the Trustees to object or withdraw your consent for its use.

Rights Related to Automated Decision Making and Profiling

The Trustees do not use any form of automated decision making or the profiling of individual personal data.

Conclusion

In accordance with the law, we only collect a limited amount of information about you that is necessary for correspondence, information and service provision. We do not use profiling, and we do not sell or pass your data to third parties. We do not use your data for purposes other than those specified. We make sure your data is stored securely. We delete all information deemed to be no longer necessary. We constantly review our Privacy Policies to keep it up to date in protecting your data.
